

END THE KOREAN WAR NOW

Time for Reconciliation and Healing

July 27 marks the 60th anniversary of the Korean War Armistice Day. And September 8 will mark the 68th anniversary of the landing of the U.S. Forces in Korea. Much time has passed, but the U.S. is still fighting the longest, undeclared war in its history in Korea, with some 30,000 soldiers still stationed in South Korea today. It is high time for us to end this lingering, costly war, and bring our troops home.

A nuclear weapons free, peaceful Korea is possible when old foes end their enmity. We call for direct talks, a peace treaty, reconciliation, and normalization of relations with DPRK (North Korea). We call for a new U.S. policy toward Korea in support of the Korean people's just aspiration for a peaceful reunification of their country, which was arbitrarily divided into two by us in 1945. We are very sorry for the tragic division and continuing sufferings.
