The National Campaign to End the Korean War presents:*

Memory of Forgotten War

A film by Deann Borshay Liem
and Ramsay Liem

Saturday July 27, 2013 @ 7pm

Festival Center – 1640 Columbia Road NW

Washington, DC 20009; nearest Metro – Columbia Heights

Four Korean American survivors testify to the brutality of the Korean War and the pain of divided families, 60 years later. Interwoven with the history of the war, their stories speak loudly for a long overdue end to the unresolved Korean War.

Screening followed by Q&A with co-director Ramsay Liem

Panel: reflections from Stephen McNeil (American Friends Service Committee), Sarah Sloan (ANSWER Coalition), Hyuk-Kyo Suh (National Association of Korean Americans)

Closing: video call by Veterans For Peace to end the Korean War and solidarity photo booth.

Co-sponsored by: American Friends Service Committee, ANSWER Coalition, Columban Center for Advocacy and Outreach, National Association of Korean Americans, United Methodist Church
